CIRCULAR

Sub: Procurement Policy for Micro & Small Enterprises...Reg

It is brought to the kind notice of all Service Provider (Handling & Transportation, Security, Civil, IT etc) associated with CRWC at present as well as in the past that Government of India has taken various initiatives to improve market access and competitiveness of Micro & small Enterprises (MSE's) by providing various incentives to MSE's in its procurement policy 2012.

In brief the policy entails-

- 1) As per the procurement policy 2012, 20% of procurement of annual requirement of goods and services is earmarked for Micro and Small Enterprises and a sub target of 4 % procurement of goods and services out of the 20 % is earmarked to MSE's owned by SC/ST enterprises.
- 2) To reduce transaction cost of doing business, MSE's are to be facilitated by providing them tender sets free of cost, exempting from payment of Earnest Money Deposit.
- 3) Further, MSE's having valid registration (Udyog Aadhar Memorandum) are to be provided all the benefits available for MSE's as per procurement policy 2012.
- 4) Tenderers submitting tenders under MSE's category should produce the certificate of registration under MSE category.
- 5) Tenderers submitting bids under SC/ST category should furnish certificate of SC/ST status in the name of the proprietor (in case of proprietorship firm),
